One Brave Chinese.
Wild Day, Wild Street.
Nitrogen Replacing Gold.
Queer Germany.

By Arthur Brisbane
CHANG TRUNG CHANG, off to the Chinese battle front, wears goggles to 20 wives and concubines, promising to come back victorious. Anemic westerners can only admire Chang's courage and nerve.

Ladies who began marrying young, when he was a gang leader, include Chinese, Japanese, Koreans, Russians and Mongolians. With or love, that's a brave Chinese.

Will times in Wall Street yesterday, mergers to fire the imaginations of speculators were announced, others promised.

Stocks at rising prices changed hands 10,000 and 15,000 shares at a time. Dealers were 45 minutes behind the market.

Apparently Federal Reserve gentlemen will have to find some way of backing interest rates up to 10 or 20 per cent. It seems hard to convince the public that American securities are not good, that we are not in prosperous times, and that control of the world's money market should be moved to London.

Gold has been the unit of value since men first found strange, heavy metal yellow grains washed down by mountain streams thousands of years ago.

Now gold is being replaced by fiat money. Nitrogen will replace it, being the foundation of our food supply, and of life.

Every square mile of air above the earth's surface has 20,000,000 tons of nitrogen, enough to last the world 12 years.

Any way of getting that nitrogen out of the air cheaply would be marvellously important, to farmers especially.

Heavy food wanted to do it at Muscle Shoals, but the fertilizer trust would not let him.

They do things "wonderfully" in the sugar business, says H. H. Hago Stinner, Jr., who has been accused of tampering with Germany's bonds, trying to make money illicitly. He is convicted, but he is in jail.

And for the present he will stay there.

It will amaze our high spirited Americans that steel is a permanent resource. They are not on their private yacht, never saw a fall, and probably never will see one.

Another step in flying, nine men starting a non-stop flight from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Some will make the flight, some will not. This is air, before you are much more than a speck, to make every hour on the hour.

Jackson and Mann hit home runs in the first and third innings for the Giants.

MOTHER OF 4 MISSING, POSSES SCOUR WOODS

Fitchburg, Sept. 12.—Bare-footed and bare-headed, wearing only a thin raincoat over her nightgown, Mrs. Elizabeth McCarthy, 42, a widow and mother of four children, disappeared from her home in South Fitchburg early today and is being sought by the police.

A posse of 100 police, five Scouts and members set out at daylight to search the dense woods and up derelicts. They found no trace of her and more volunteers were called to aid in the hunt.

The victim was Fred Dymally, 45, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dymally of 21 Porter st., who was killed and Alexander Dymally, three, whose home is on the danger list at the Madison hospital.

Alexander was picked up on the bumper of the wild machine and crushed against a tree.

Abraham G. Goldman of Bryant st., Malden, operator of the car, who had left it at the top of the hill while he drank, was arrested on a charge of manslaughter and released in $1000 bail.

According to the police, the Dymallys were seated on the car when it was struck by the car of Porter st., Goldman was in a house delivering an order when the heavy rain began.

AIR RACERS PLUNGE ON FARM; FOUR FLIERS ARE LEFT IN CONTEST

Los Angeles, Sept. 12.—Four out of nine starting planes were still winging their way to Kings Field here today in the first air race from New York to Los Angeles.

The planes in the great fly derby were forced down today by a heavy rain, which caused the fliers to be injured.

The latter were William Thaw, 11 and John F. Morris, both of Pittsboro. The other plane to land was that flown by Nick Namer of Spokane. Namer was forced down in the morning.

Top of the five were reported down in their long way across the state where $22,500 in cash awaits the winning aviator.

One of the planes sighted was Charles A. Levine-Goodrich. This plane, piloted by Lloyd-Goodrich, Jack Please Turn to Page 2, Column 2.

FINDS 25 HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS VISIT BRAINTREE 'HELL'S KITCHEN' DIVES

Twenty-five Braintree high school girls and more than a score of Quincy, Woburn and Dorchester women have been among the patrons of speakers and beer "joints" in the so-called "Hell's Kitchen" area of Braintree, Police Chief Patrick Heeney said today, following a raid on five houses in Granite at Chief Heeney's statement was made in connection with the Quincy court arraignment of four men and a woman arrested in the raids.

For several days, he revealed, Braintree police secretly have been checking up on all persons entering houses suspected of being liquor joints. A number of young women were found present in the houses raided, police claim.

As a result of conditions brought to the surface by the investigation, a special police squad will be set up to keep a close watch on the women, said Chief Heeney.

The "Hell's Kitchen" area, Chief Heeney said, he described it as "a sort of a women's district and crime."

In court, three of the men arrested were fined $50 for keeping and exporting liquor. They are Paul Brown, Michael Hearty and Vincent V. Please Turn to Page 4, Column 1.

New Giant Zeppelin

Built for Flights to U. S.

Ready for Tests This Week

The Graf Zeppelin is designed exactly like the Los Angeles, but is one and a half times as large. It uses as fuel a special gas that has nearly the same specific gravity, and it is expected this will considerably increase the ship's radius of action. After the test flights it is planned to put the ship in regular service to the U. S. The ship will carry 20 passengers.

NEW 'ZEP' TRIAL ON SATURDAY

Friedrichshafen, Sept. 12—After many delays Germany's new superliner, the Count Zeppelin, which is the largest airship in the world, is now ready to take the air. The 11 big balloons are filled with hydrogen gas to lift the 741 foot long queen of the air which weighs 120 tons. The first 12 cylinders of 230 horsepower motors are being tested.

On Saturday morning, the weather permitting, the Count Zeppelin will be brought out of its shed, and with Commander Dr. Hugo Eckener in command, will have its first trial flight. Only the officers, crew, engineers and shop specialists will be aboard for this flight which has for its purpose the testing out of the motors, rubber, electrical, and other machinery of the world's greatest airship.

FINAL PLEAS IN DEATH CASE

fact that none but Hooce could have fired the murder revolver. In making for the defense, an argument that lasted two and a half hours, Frank J. Gallagher denied that either Hooce or O'Donnell had conspired the murder and he asked acquittal of the two defendants.

Earlier in morning, Donovan's mother, sister and brother were in court and listened attentively to the argument. That they had committed murder, Daniel J. Gallagher of defense counsel argued today in Superior Court for the acquittal of Michael Hooce and William O'Donnell, on trial charged with slaying John J. Donovan in South Boston last November.

The case is expected to be in the hands of the jury before night and a verdict may be reached a few hours later.

Earlier in morning, Donovan's mother, sister and brother were in court and they listened intently to the defense argument.

In his argument, Alvin Gallagher told the jury that Donovan had been loved and admired by the evidence. For the entire day previous to the murder, Gallagher declared, Donovan had sought O'Donnell by telephone and then, finding them on the murder date, invited O'Donnell to South Boston to see about the "club."

"If these men had gone out to murder Donovan," said Gallagher, "do you suppose they would have gone in his own car and let him drive, or find three shots into his head while he was at the wheel and the car was running on a highway in a busy part of South Boston early at night?"

"Do you suppose they would have taken him to the district where he lived or was known?"

"If they had been the murderers, do you suppose they would have gone to the most desolate spot of Mr. Washington ave. where the testimony of the defendants showed Donovan stopped his car and turned off his lights to point out the building where the shot was fired?"

"Mr. Washington ave. was the place for a supply if any had been in their hearts. These men did not commit that murder."

2 FIREMEN MISS DEATH IN FALSE ALARM RUN

A carload of town cutups nearly caused the death, early today, of two firemen in Hyde Park when Engine 49 skidded and overturned while returning to its station after responding to a false alarm from the box at Brush Hill rd. and Dana ave.

The alarm was the first of two such false alarms, the second being sounded from a box in Brush Hill rd.

In the overturning of the engine, Lieut. Arthur E. Johnson and Driver John W. Duggan escaped by wriggling along the wet pavement after their toes and while the heavy engine was settling against a telephone pole.

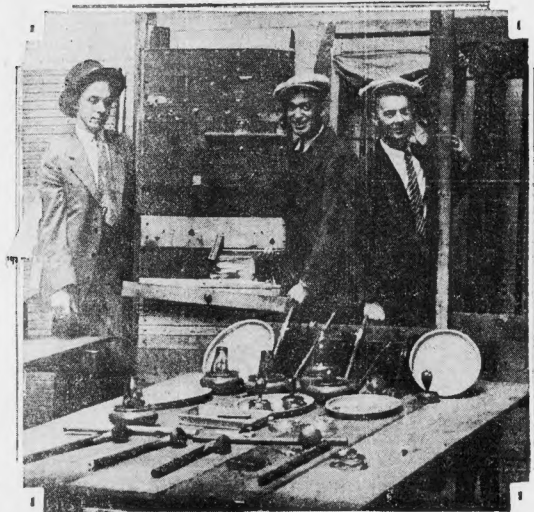

The pole had to be removed before the engine could be righted.

Duggan told police he saw an automobile load of shrieking youths pass his engine as they drove away from the vicinity of the box, as Duggan was racing his engine in answer to the first alarm.

GRACE LA RUE AMONG 26 TO OFFER BLOOD

New York, Sept. 13—How big is Broadway's heart, anyway? Lillian Lorraine, dying in Park West Hospital, needed very badly to know, and a newspaper set out to find the answer.

Suffering a relapse after her operation for appendicitis, this former favorite of Broadway, who had been the particular star of Ziegfeld's aggregation of beauties in the "Follies," had a slight chance for her life, doctors said, provided she was given a blood transfusion.

She'd danced for Broadway? She'd sung for Broadway? She'd given what she had in youth and beauty and ambition to Broadway.

Scarcely two hours after Lillian Lorraine's appeal for help had gone out, she had the answer.

Still wearing the paint and rouge and the makeup in which they had appeared at the matinee performance of "Good Boy," no fewer than 26 chorus girls volunteered.

"Take me, please," begged the girls. "No, let me be the one—she was my friend, she helped me often, let me be the one," were their cries.

There being need for only one girl for the blood transfusion, a process of elimination was undertaken.

They bore their arms and veins for the test, the most eager being, perhaps, Grace La Rue, who had received her introduction to Broadway and her opportunity in the "show business" through her friend, Lillian Lorraine.

Grace was weeping when she submitted herself to the test, muttering, "Let me be the one—please let me be the one to help her."

According to Dr. Harry Gilbert, the 33 actress' physician who operated on her on Monday for a ruptured appendix, peritonitis has set in and her condition is "critical."

E. PARSONS GIVES $500 TO AIRPORT FUND

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Crouse-Peterson Fly, American Legion, held in its hall in Boston today, Eugene M. Parsons, publisher of the Boston Evening American, and Boston Sunday American personally presented $500 to the memorial temple to be erected on the airport.

The presentation was made by Mr. Parsons following a statement by Capt. R. F. Raymond, chairman of the aviation committee, to the effect that some $25,000 was still needed for the memorial.

The affair was the annual meeting and luncheon of that post, one of the features of which was the election of officers, and the award of prizes to the members for their work in behalf of the war.

One of these went to Post Commander Carroll J. Swan for his increasing membership, and the other to Daniel M. Stern, vice-commander, for work in behalf of the post during the present year.

The meeting was presided over by Vice-Commander Chester A. Porter in the absence of Commander Swan, and at the head table in the hall.

Albert Adkins, a pioneer of the Norfolk County Jail, was found quitting by a jury today of assisting

Stephen J. Hoppe in an attempted escape last month and was sentenced to eight to ten years in the State Prison

by Judge McLeod in the District

Criminal Court at Dedham.

Mr. Wilson, newly elected nation at president of the American Leather and Leather Association, attributed the coming case in waiting to the discovery of a method of measuring the first time the liability of leather. Until the device for determining liability was perfected, it was permitted, in fact, to have had no of doing a thing, but colored to individual taste.

Mr. Fred G. Black of the U. S.

Department of Agriculture, bureau of chemistry and soil, said the public facts in food is changing, due partly to the ability of food producers through chemical aid to improve the quality.

MEADOW MAN FALLS

OVERBOARD; DROWNED

Westport, Sept. 12 (AP)—A young man, Fred G. Black, who was found dead in the water today, was overboard by Earl P. Charlton, of Westport, who was with him

when he was found.

The body was recovered.

RUBY KEELER

Dancing star, whom Broadway hears will soon become the third wife of Al Jolson.

Neither Ruby nor Al will admit the engagement, but the Rialto asserts it's a

"sure thing."

AL JOLSON MAY

WED DANCER

New York, Sept. 12—Broadway

buzzed with reports that Al Jolson

the greatest jazz singer of them all, is about to take unto himself a third wife.

The party of the second part,

reports have it, is to be Miss Ruby Keeler, 24, a dancer, who has danced herself into fame and fortune.

Neither would affirm or deny the report, Jolson hinted it was "premature," and Miss Keeler asked to be excused from making any statement in the matter.

But those "in the know" were confident in saying they expected to fore Jolson sails for London later this month, that the engagement could be announced, and, perhaps, the marriage performed.

TOP-NOTCH DANCER

Miss Keeler, who is said to be one of the best women tap dancers, is playing at a Broadway movie house in a review. Co-starred with her is the veteran Jack O'Brien, who has been in the business since 1910.

Miss Keeler came to prominence after she appeared in night clubs, where she attracted the notice of Charles Dillingham, who announced his intention of starring her, and she is expected to open in a review late this month, if it doesn't go to London.

BORN REFUSE TO TALK

"Please don't ask me about that report," Miss Keeler said. "I really don't want to say anything about it."

And Jolson, who was busy most of day taking his first steps in theater, to the presentation of the second fall, "The Jazz Singer,"

at the Winter Garden, most weattered for time, saying:

"Don't say anything more—call me

The Polleroyal Model 125 is the last word in up-to-date Radio. Through the use of the new A. C. tubes this self-contained, six-tube, one dial Radio operates directly from your lighting socket without means of any batteries or battery eliminators. There are no separate power devices of any type to be placed on the table with the receiver or on the floor. Tuning is accomplished entirely by one knob. In addition there is a volume control to regulate the intensity of the signal, and a switch to turn the current on and off. Its compact cabinet, beautifully finished in mahogany, adds to its many attractive features. Dimensions—9 3/4" high, 27" long and 10 7/8" deep.

HERE THEY ARE THE THREE BEST UNIVERSITY STYLES BY HART SCHAFFNER & MARX

At the left is the suit that the majority of the men in the middle West and far Western Universities wear right now. Buttons are a little closer together; there's a trifle more waist suppression; the lapels roll softly to the second button.

In the center is the suit that is in greatest favor at the Eastern schools. It has two buttons, notched lapels.

At the right is the new two button peaked lapel suit that is being worn by many of the leaders in Eastern Universities. It will gain great momentum this fall.

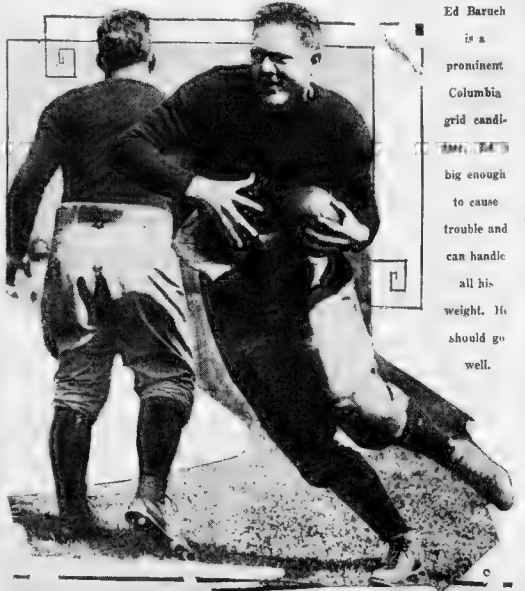

Hart Schaffner & Marx are in constant touch with every college in the country. These styles are right.
